4. Критерии оценки по дисциплине «Иностранный язык»

В результате освоения данного курса студенты должны уметь составлять письменные высказывания, оформленные в соответствии с различными жанрами (эссе, рассказ, краткое изложение, развернутый план, деловое письмо и т.д.), а также уметь составлять различные по цели написания письменные тексты (публицистический, информационный, литературный и т.п.).

Студент должен владеть лексико-грамматическим материалом предлагаемых текстов, уметь переводить и анализировать тексты, особое внимание уделяется просмотровому чтению и поисковому чтению.

По окончании данного курса студенты должны уметь составлять монологические высказывания на пройденные темы, вести по этим темам дискуссии и применять в ходе этих дискуссий полученные в ходе курса знания.

Промежуточный контроль. Зачет - необходимо успешно выполнить тестовые задания по отдельным видам речевой деятельности по тематике, пройденной в последнем семестре.

Чтение с пониманием основного содержания прочитанного (ознакомительное)

Оценка «5» ставится студенту, если он понял основное содержание оригинального текста, может выделить основную мысль, определить основные факты, умеет догадываться о значении незнакомых слов из контекста, либо по словообразовательным элементам, либо по сходству с родным языком.

Оценка «4» ставится студенту, если он понял основное содержание оригинального текста, может выделить основную мысль, определить отдельные факты. Однако у него недостаточно развита языковая догадка, и он затрудняется в понимании некоторых незнакомых слов, он вынужден чаще обращаться к словарю, а темп чтения более замедлен.

Оценка «3» ставится студенту, который не совсем точно понял основное содержание прочитанного, умеет выделить в тексте только небольшое количество фактов, совсем не развита языковая догадка.

Оценка «2» выставляется в том случае, если он не понял текст или понял содержание текста неправильно, не ориентируется в тексте при поиске определенных фактов, не умеет семантизировать незнакомую лексику.

Чтение с полным пониманием содержания (изучающее)

Оценка «5» ставится, когда он полностью понял несложный оригинальный текст (публицистический, научно-популярный; инструкцию или отрывок из туристического проспекта). Он использовал при этом все известные приемы, направленные на понимание читаемого (смысловую догадку, анализ).

Оценка «4» выставляется, если он полностью понял текст, но многократно обращался к словарю.

Оценка «3» ставится, если студент понял текст не полностью, не владеет приемами его смысловой переработки.

Оценка «2» ставится в том случае, когда текст студентом не понят. Он с трудом может найти незнакомые слова в словаре.

Чтение с нахождением интересующей или нужной информации (просмотровое)

Оценка «5» ставится студенту, если он может достаточно быстро просмотреть несложный оригинальный текст (типа расписания поездов, меню, программы телепередач) или несколько небольших текстов и выбрать правильно запрашиваемую информацию.

Оценка «4» ставится студенту при достаточно быстром просмотре текста, но при этом он находит только примерно 2/3 за данной информации. Оценка «3» выставляется, если студент находит в данном тексте (или данных текстах) примерно 1/3 заданной информации.

Оценка «2» выставляется в том случае, если студент практически не ориентируется в тексте.

Понимание речи на слух (аудирование)

Оценка «5» ставится студенту, который понял основные факты, сумел выделить отдельную, значимую для себя информацию (например, из прогноза погоды, объявления, программы радио и телепередач), догадался о значении части незнакомых слов по контексту, сумел использовать информацию для решения поставленной задачи (например, найти ту или иную радиопередачу).

Оценка «4» ставится студенту, который понял не все основные факты. При решении коммуникативной задачи он использовал только 2/3 информации.

Оценка «3» свидетельствует, что студент понял только 50 % текста. Отдельные факты понял неправильно. Не сумел полностью решить поставленную перед ним коммуникативную задачу.

Оценка «2» ставится, если студент понял менее 50 % текста и выделил из него менее половины основных фактов. Он не смог решить поставленную перед ним речевую задачу.

Говорение

Оценка «5» ставится студенту, если он в целом справился с поставленными речевыми задачами. Его высказывание было связным и логически последовательным. Диапазон используемых языковых средств достаточно широк. Языковые средства были правильно употреблены, практически отсутствовали ошибки, нарушающие коммуникацию, или они были незначительны. Объем высказывания соответствовал тому, что задано программой на данном году обучения. Наблюдалась легкость речи и достаточно правильное произношение. Речь студента была эмоционально окрашена, в ней имели место не только передача отдельных фактов (отдельной информации), но и элементы их оценки, выражения собственного мнения.

Оценка «4» выставляется студенту, если он в целом справился с поставленными речевыми задачами. Его высказывание было связанным и последовательным. Использовался довольно большой объем языковых средств, которые были употреблены правильно. Однако были сделаны отдельные ошибки, нарушающие коммуникацию. Темп речи был несколько замедлен. Отмечалось произношение, страдающее сильным влиянием родного языка. Речь была недостаточно эмоционально окрашена. Элементы оценки имели место, но в большей степени высказывание содержало информацию и отражало конкретные факты.

Оценка «3» ставится студенту, если он сумел в основном решить поставленную речевую задачу, но диапазон языковых средств был ограничен, объем высказывания не достигал нормы. Ученик допускал языковые ошибки. В некоторых местах нарушалась последовательность высказывания. Практически отсутствовали элементы оценки и выражения собственного мнения. Речь не была эмоционально окрашенной. Темп речи был замедленным.

Оценка «2» ставится студенту, если он только частично справился с решением коммуникативной задачи. Высказывание было небольшим по объему (не соответствовало требованиям программы). Наблюдалась узость вокабуляра. Отсутствовали элементы собственной оценки. Студент допускал большое количество ошибок, как языковых, так и фонетических. Многие ошибки нарушали общение, в результате чего возникало непонимание между речевыми партнерами.

Письмо

Оценка «5». Коммуникативная задача решена, соблюдены основные правила оформления текста, очень незначительное количество орфографических и лексико-грамматических погрешностей. Логичное и последовательное изложение материала с делением текста на абзацы. Правильное использование различных средств передачи логической связи между отдельными частями текста. Студент показал знание большого запаса лексики и успешно использовал ее с учетом норм иностранного языка. Практически нет ошибок. Соблюдается правильный порядок слов. При использовании более сложных конструкций допустимо небольшое количество ошибок, которые не нарушают понимание текста. Почти нет орфографических ошибок. Соблюдается деление текста на предложения. Имеющиеся неточности не мешают пониманию текста.

Оценка «4». Коммуникативная задача решена, но лексико-грамматические погрешности, в том числе выходящих за базовый уровень, препятствуют пониманию. Мысли изложены в основном логично. Допустимы отдельные недостатки при делении текста на абзацы и при использовании средств передачи логической связи между отдельными частями текста или в формате письма. Студент использовал достаточный объем лексики, допуская отдельные неточности в употреблении слов или ограниченный запас слов, но эффективно и правильно, с учетом норм иностранного языка. В работе имеется ряд грамматических ошибок, не препятствующих пониманию текста. Допустимо несколько орфографических ошибок, которые не затрудняют понимание текста.

Оценка «3». Коммуникативная задача решена, но языковые погрешности, в том числе при применении языковых средств, составляющих базовый уровень, препятствуют пониманию текста. Мысли не всегда изложены логично. Деление текста на абзацы недостаточно последовательно или вообще отсутствует. Ошибки в использовании средств передачи логической связи между отдельными частями текста. Много ошибок в формате письма. Студент использовал ограниченный запас слов, не всегда соблюдая нормы иностранного языка. В работе либо часто встречаются грамматические ошибки элементарного уровня, либо ошибки немногочисленны, но так серьезны, что затрудняют понимание текста. Имеются многие ошибки, орфографические и пунктуационные, некоторые из них могут приводить к непониманию текста.

Оценка «2». Коммуникативная задача не решена. Отсутствует логика в построении высказывания. Не используются средства передачи логической связи между частями текста. Формат письма не соблюдается. Студент не смог правильно использовать свой лексический запас для выражения своих мыслей или не обладает необходимым запасом слов. Грамматические правила не соблюдаются. Правила орфографии и пунктуации не соблюдаются.

Критерии оценки результатов тестирования

Доля правильных ответов, %	Оценка
Менее 55%	Неудовлетворительно

1.Прочитайте текст и выполните задания.

«The working day of an engineer»

Dmitry Petrov works at an office. He lives near the office. He usually walks there. He only works five days a week. He works on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. He doesn't work at the week-end. His working day lasts eight hours. He receives very many letters and telegrams in the morning and always answers them. He sometimes translates articles from foreign newspapers and journals. He often receives engineers from factories in the afternoon. They discuss a lot of questions with him. He usually finishes work at six o'clock in the evening.

Dmitry Petrov learns English. He works hard at his English. He sometimes stays in the office after work for his English lessons. After classes he returns home.

“Who works at this office?” “Dmitry Petrov does.”

“Does he work very much?” Yes, he works a lot”

“Whom does he often receive at the office?” “He often receives engineers from factories.”

“Does Dmitry Petrov live far from the office?” “No, He lives near it.”

“How long does his working day last?” “It lasts eight hours.”

“What time does he stop work?” “He stops work at six in the evening.”

2. Переведите на английский язык, используя активную лексику урока.

Моя сестра преподавательница. Она преподаёт английский язык. Мой приятель и я тоже изучаем английский язык, но многие студенты упорно работают над двумя иностранными языками. Мы всегда вовремя приходим на занятия и хорошо выполняем (делаем) домашние задания. Мы часто читаем английские газеты и журналы дома. Мне нравится читать английские книги, и я много читаю. Мы занимаемся (у нас бывают уроки) по понедельникам, средам, четвергам и пятницам. Мы делаем много упражнений в классе и иногда пишем диктанты. Мы читаем тексты, переводим их, отвечаем на вопросы и переводим русские предложения на английский. Часто после уроков мы идем домой вместе. Мы разговариваем по-английски и обсуждаем свою работу.

Вариант 1

1. Read the text. Are the statements true or false?

CHARLES DICKENS (1812- 1870)

Charles Dickens is a famous writer in the English language. He wrote about the real world of England and many of the people in his books were not rich, but poor and hungry.

Charles Dickens's family lived in London and his father worked in an office. It was a good job, but he always spent a lot of money and often there was no money to buy food. There were eight children in the family, so life was hard.

Charles went to school and his teachers thought he was very clever. But when Charles was only eleven, his father lost all his money and the family left their house. Charles got a job washing bottles. He worked ten hours a day and he earned six shillings (30p) a week. Every night, after work, he walked four miles back to his room. Charles hated it and never forgot it. He used it in many books, for example David Copperfield and Oliver Twist.

William Shakespeare, the world's greatest playwright, was bom in April, 1564. He grew up in Stratford-upon-Avon in central England and attended Stratford Grammar School.

In 1582, when Shakespeare was 18 years old, he married a woman named Anne Hathaway and the couple had three children. A few years after his marriage, Shakespeare moved to London where he worked as both a playwright and an actor. In 1593, he joined «The Lord Chamberlain's Men», one of England's most famous acting companies.

Shakespeare stayed with this group, acting and writing, until 1599. It was in this year that the theatre where the group performed burnt down. School in the Slums

Slums – трущобы

Permission — разрешение

Mellish school is in the slums of Brooklyn for pupils between twelve and fifteen years of age. There are about 1500 pupils there, and 90 teachers.

It's a problem school, perhaps one of the most difficult schools in America. The white teachers can't walk to the school because they may be attacked. They all drive to school, and their cars have special locks. There's always a black policeman at the door of the school. He has a radio contact with the school guards. Pupils must have a written permission from the teacher if they want to go to the toilet. There's a guard outside the washroom. Only one child can go into the washroom at a time, and he can't stay there long.

The children who live in that district go to that school. They are all black children. However, why do the teachers work there?

"It's very hard of course," says Jane Flinch, a forty- five-year-old teacher. Most children have problems at home. Some of them are beaten by their parents. Some of them sleep at the lessons because they had to work at night. Some of the children get sick at the lessons because they didn't have breakfast or even a meal for a day or two.

It's the love of the job that keeps the teachers in that school. They teach and do social work. They feel that they are doing something good for the children who need help.

"There's also the problem of violence," says one of the teachers. "Sometimes when I go into a class, I can feel that some of the children are like a dynamite. However, I feel quite safe. I am sure that other pupils will help me." There is very little money for teaching in that school. There is no money to buy food for the children.

The principal of the school has been there for many years. A lot of his happy optimism has gone. "No, I'm not optimistic about the future. Look around you," he says and points out of the window at the high wall round the school. "It's not a very bright sight: buildings have holes instead of the windows, shops are closed, groups of people are sitting on the steps of the houses. They have nowhere to go and nothing to do."

"We need money," he says, "money is the only way to help this school and these people, and, of course, jobs for the people."

Shopkeeper – хозяин магазина

In astonishment – с удивлением

The Boy and the Door

There was a small shop in a little street in an old town. In the shop there were beautiful things made of silver and gold. The small shop had a door that opened on the little street. The shopkeeper was standing at the open door.

“Come and buy! Come and buy!” called the shopkeeper. “Come into my shop and see all the beautiful things!” again he called. “Come in!”

I ‘ll show you beautiful things made of silver and gold.”

One day the shopkeeper had to go away to the king’s palace. The king wanted a beautiful gold ring and a silver cup from the shop. The shopkeeper called the boy who worked for him. “I’m going to the king’s palace,” he said. “You must stay here. Do not leave the door of the shop whatever happens. Do you understand?”

“Yes, I understand,” said the boy.

The shopkeeper went away, and soon he came to the king’s palace. He gave the king the ring and the cup. Then he went home. Soon he was back at his shop. He stopped and looked up in astonishment. “What is this?” he cried. “Why are so many people going into my shop?” Then the shopkeeper saw that the door of the shop was gone and so was the boy who worked for him.

Just then, the shopkeeper saw the boy. He was in the street near the shop. The boy had the shop door on his back. He was standing in the square looking at some men who were doing tricks.

The shopkeeper ran to the boy. “I told you not to leave my shop,” he cried.

The Rich Man and the Gold

There was once a very rich man. He had three cars and two houses and many other things.

One day he said, «I am getting old. I'm going to sell everything and buy a big piece of gold. »

He sold his houses and his cars and everything and he bought a very big piece of gold. He dug a hole near a tree, and he put the piece of gold into the hole. «No one will find my gold here», he said.

Every day he went back and dug up the gold. He looked at it and said, «Good! My gold is there». Then he put the gold back into the hole and put the earth back on top of it.

But one day there was a man behind the tree. He was a thief and he was asleep. The rich man didn't see the thief. He dug up the gold and looked at it. «Good! » he said, «My gold is there». The thief woke up and looked round the tree. «What is the man putting into the hole? » he thought. «I'm going to find out». The rich man put the gold back into the hole and went away. Then the thief went to the hole and dug up the gold. «A big piece of gold! » he said. «It's my gold now. I am a rich man. » He ran off with the gold and never came back. The next day the first man came back and began to dig. He dug and he dug but he did not find the gold. «My gold is not here», he said. «I am not a rich man now. I have no gold! » and he began to cry. Then he went home and told one of his friends. His friend said, «Don't cry. Here is a big stone. Take it and put it in the hole. Then every day you can go and dig it up and look at it». A piece of gold in a hole is no better than a stone.

Catherine

Catherine was five years old. She often went to the shops with her mother. She liked toys very much, and she often stopped and looked at them in the shops, but her mother usually said, «Don't stop and look at the toys today, Catherine. It's late».

Catherine's mother did not usually go to the shops on Saturdays, because she always had a lot of work at home on that day, but last Friday evening her husband said, «Some of my friends are going to visit us on Sunday», and she didn't have much food in the house.

She took Catherine at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, and they went to the shops together. Catherine's mother said to her, «Stay near me, Catherine, and don't stop and look at the toys today».

Catherine said, «Yes, Mummy, » and she held her mother's hand. But then her mother had a lot of parcels, and Catherine stopped holding her hand.

They came to the best shop in the town. There were quite a lot of men in front of it. There was a beautiful toy bear in one of the windows, and Catherine stopped for a few seconds and looked at it. Then she looked for her mother, but she was not there. There were only men round Catherine, and they were all much taller than she was.

Catherine was very young, but she was a clever girl. She did not cry. There was a policeman in the middle of the street near the shop. Catherine waited at the side of the road for a minute, and then the policeman stopped the cars and the buses. Catherine went to him and said, «Good morning. Have you seen any ladies in this street this morning? »

«Yes, I have», the policeman said. «A lot of ladies have passed me this morning».

«And has one passed you without a small girl? » Catherine said.

«Yes, » the policeman said.

Catherine said happily, «I'm the small girl. Where's the lady? »

One day a well-known singer was invited to the house of a rich lady to sing for her guests at a dinner-party. But instead of inviting the singer to dine with her guests, the lady ordered dinner for him in the servants' room. The singer said nothing. He dined well and after dinner said to the servants: "Now, my dear friends, I am going to sing for you". The servants were very much surprised but said they were awfully glad to have a chance to hear the great singer. He sang many beautiful songs and servants enjoyed listening to him. Later the lady sent one of her servants to bring the singer up to the drawing room, where all her guests were waiting for him. "But I cannot sing twice in one evening. Madam", said the singer to the lady when she met him at the door leading into the drawing-room.

"What do you mean?" asked the lady. "I mean I have already sung for about an hour for your servants, Madam", - answered the singer. - "It was a pity you were not there, for I always sing for the people with whom I dine". And with these words he left the house.

We are in Oxford Circus, one of the busiest street in the West End of London, and that street over there is Regent Street, famous all over the world for its splendid shops. On both sides of the street there are shops, banks and restaurants. In the roadway there is a constant stream of cars, taxis, buses and lorries. Most of London buses are the famous red double-deckers that have two platforms (or decks) for passengers. The noise is deafening, but one soon gets used to it. The pavements are crowded with people, and it's dangerous to cross it.⁴ We are in Oxford Circus, one of the busiest streets in the road until the traffic is stopped, either by a policeman or by the red traffic light. In any case before crossing the road, take care to look to your right, and when you reach the middle of the road, look to your left. You must not do the reverse, because the cars in Britain keep to the left and not to the right as in most countries of the world. At night, the streets are lit by electricity. The main streets are flooded with light from brilliant shop-windows and the illuminated signs, so that after dark everything looks as bright as in broad daylight.

Italian Forks

In 1608 an Englishman whose name was Thomas Coryate visited Italy. He liked the country and noted down every interesting thing he found. But there was one thing which he found more interesting than the others. In his diary Thomas wrote, "When the Italians eat meat, they use small forks. They don't eat with hands because, as they say, do not always have clean hands".

Before leaving for England, Thomas Coryate bought a few forks.

At home Thomas gave a dinner party to show the invention to his friends. When the servant brought the steak, he took out a fork and began to eat like they did in Italy.

Everybody looked at him in surprise. When he told his friends what it was, they all wanted to take a good look at the strange thing. All his friends said that the Italians were very strange people because the fork was very inconvenient.

Thomas Coryate tried to prove the opposite. He said it was not nice to eat with one's fingers because they were not always clean.

Everybody got angry at that. Did Mr. Coryate think that people in England always had dirty hands? And weren't the ten fingers they had enough for them?

Thomas Coryate wanted to show that it was very easy to use the fork. But the first piece of meat he took with the fork fell to the floor. His friends began to laugh and he had to take the fork away.

Only fifty years later people in England began to use forks.

The Story of My Troubles

From my childhood I was an easily taught and obedient boy. My kindness was so noticeable that my friends made fun of me. I was especially fond of animals and had a great number of pets. With these I spent most of my time, and never was so happy as when feeding and playing with them. My character did not change much when I grew up.

I married early, and was happy to find in my wife a character very much like my own. Seeing my love for pets she never lost a chance of getting the most pleasant animals. We had birds, goldfish, a fine dog, rabbits, a small monkey, and a cat.

This cat was a remarkably large and beautiful animal, quite black and surprisingly clever. In speaking of his cleverness, my wife, who was a superstitious woman, often mentioned the old popular belief, which considered all black cats to be in disguise.

Pluto- this was the cat's name- was my favourite pet and playmate. I alone fed him, and he followed me everywhere about the house. It was even with difficulty that I could prevent him following me through the streets.

Our friendship lasted for several years, during which my character (I blush to confess it) had changed for the worse. I became day by day more moody and irritable. It often happened that I hurt the feelings of others; I suffered myself as I was rude to my wife. At last I even hit her.

My pets, of course, could feel the change in my character. In fact, I began to treat them cruelly. As for Pluto, I held back from cruelty as I did treat cruelly the rabbits, the monkey, or even the dog when they came in my way. But my illness took hold of me- for what other illness is like alcohol! - and at last even Pluto, who was now becoming old, even Pluto began to feel the effects of my temper

The History of Money

Can you imagine the world without money? It is quite impossible. Money - they say - makes the world go round. Why is that so? Well, think of all the situations in which you have to pay for the things you buy – like food, clothes, medicine, newspapers, or for the services you get, like a new hairstyle or car repairs. Think of the entertainment you have to pay for - tickets to concerts, sports matches, favourite books, CDs and holidays. You can have it all if you've got the money.

Money has played an important role in every civilisation.

It has taken various forms and has changed many times over the centuries. The first form of payment was the exchange of goods. People usually exchanged animal skins and meat, fruit and vegetables, cloth and precious stones. In ancient Egypt they used metal bars which were cut into smaller parts if necessary. In the seventh century BC the first coins appeared. They were usually made of silver or gold and their value depended on the amount of metal in each coin. With time, coins became very popular and many countries produced their own currency.

The introduction of paper money - banknotes - in the seventeenth century was the beginning of banking systems in many European countries. Since then, banks have offered a wide range of services like loans, bank accounts, etc. Today, people pay for things in different ways: they pay in cash, by cheque or by credit card. The last one, it seems, is the most convenient form of payment. Many people believe that one day money in the form of coins, banknotes, cheques and magnetic cards will totally disappear and that all buying and selling will be done via the Internet.

1. _____ The exchange of goods was the first form of payment.
2. _____ Metal bars were first used as a form of payment in ancient Egypt.

The Beatles are Back?

At the start of the year 1994, the world received a shocking piece of news: 'The Beatles are to record again for the first time in 24 years.' The band's three remaining members at that time, Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr (without John Lennon who was murdered in 1980) announced plans to record together.

The three musicians did not want to record only new versions of their old songs. They were also interested in recording new music. They were going to make a ten hour special video-biography to be shown on British television later that year. The new project would include a lot of unpublished documentaries, interviews and materials from The Beatles' private collections. At the same time a new book about the group was going to appear in the bookshops. The fans would also have the chance to buy recordings of their live concerts on five CDs in the music shops.

Fans of the famous four were hoping that this comeback would not run into any difficulties. In the earlier years, The Beatles had a long history of arguments over money and copyright. This was one of the reasons why the band decided to stop working together ten years before Lennon's death.

Now that they were returning to the stage, The Beatles' old and new fans expected a new kind of fascination and excitement. They were hoping that their idols would remind them of the good old days of rock and roll. Actually, many of them never thought that one day they would get yet another chance to watch their idols perform again.

1. _____ The Beatles recorded together until 1970.
2. _____ The three Beatles wanted to record only their old hits.
3. _____ In 1994 the programme about The Beatles was going to be shown on TV.
4. _____ The new book was going to appear in bookshops.
5. _____ Only their old fans were interested in the special TV programme.
6. _____ Not many people expected to see The Beatles in concert again.
